THE SENTINEL AT NEW ORLEANS.

To accommodate the throng from the Northwest who will desire to read their favorite home paper while attending the "World's Exposition," the Sentinel has been placed on sale in New Orleans at George F. Wharton & Bro's, No. 5 Carondelet street, between Canal and Common streets.

OLD PAPERS.

Good conditioned old papers for sale at this office at only 40 cents per hundred.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Andrew Hagen, of Fortville, has been appointed State Coal Inspector, and will take charge of the office April 1.

H. B. Hamilton has been temporarily appointed to fill the position of teller at the Indianapolis National Bank.

At the regular meeting of the Methodist ministers yesterday Rev. Mr. Bright presided, and the meeting discussed "Dangerous Elements in Society."

Louis Shaffner, who was arrested on Sunday on a charge of malicious trespass, preferred by John Eusey, was released from the Station-house, the charge being dismissed.

The Governor yesterday received official documents from Secretary Manning showing the plans of ground at Terre Haute and Fort Wayne on which it is proposed to erect Custom-houses.

A letter has been received from Tabriz, Persia stating that Miss Gertrude Holliday, of this city, now a missionary there, was dangerously sick with varioloid when the letter was written.

W. E. Coffin, who resigned the cashiership of the Indiana National Bank on Saturday, will enter the bank and brokerage business in another city as soon as he can arrange his business affairs here.

Joseph S. Miller, the newly appointed United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is a brother of Frank Miller, who is connected with the Indiana Foundry, of this city. The new appointee is well known in this city, having frequently visited Frank within the past few years.

Letters from Houston, Tex., announce the death of Mr. J. E. Foster, of that city, whose wife was formerly Miss Cora Bacon, a well-known music teacher of this city until a few years since. Several Indianapolis people, who were pleasantly entertained at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Foster during the visit of the Zouaves to Houston last spring, greatly regret to hear of the gentleman's decease.

The Woman's Aid Society of the English Lutheran Church will give a parlor concert and social at the residence of Mrs. Joseph Staub, 200 North Noble street, Wednesday evening, March 18. The friends of the church are cordially invited and insured a pleasant time and some good music. The following names comprise the programme: Misses Anna Despa, Genevieve Elliot, Nettie Dietrich, Maggie and Katie Staub, and My Miller.

The Accident Record.

Charles St. Clair, residing at 101 Market avenue, and employed by the Big Four Railroad, had his right arm badly crushed yesterday morning while coupling cars.

Charles Posey, an employee of a coal firm, was knocked down by a vicious mule which he was endeavoring to hitch to a coal cart yesterday morning, the animal stepping upon him and crushing his leg near the ankle. He was removed to the City Hospital in Flanner & Hommewyn's ambulance.

C. C. Lybrand, a master mechanic, residing at 307 South Meridian street and proprietor of a coal yard, was seriously injured yesterday in Euley & Co's foundry. He was standing in the establishment, when a heavy iron pulley gave way, one of the pieces falling upon him, breaking one limb and bruising the other. His injuries are very painful, but not thought to be dangerous.

A Pittable Case.

The Sheriff yesterday arrested Mrs. Tena Echweiler, a German woman of Haughville, on a Grand Jury warrant, for grand larceny, she being indicted for the alleged theft of some clothing belonging to a neighbor. Mrs. Echweiler and her husband came to this city about three years ago, and are yet comparative strangers here. For this reason Mr. Echweiler was unable to give bond for his wife's appearance, and she was taken to the jail. This seems doubly hard as the poor woman is nursing a child and has two other children at home, one about eighteen months and the other three years old, who will need her attention. All three of the children were with her yesterday afternoon at the jail, but later in the evening the two older were taken back home.

Actors Indulge in a "Scrap."

George France, leading man in a combination which held the boards at the Zoo last week, yesterday morning became involved in an altercation with Victor Leonzo, the hero of this week's drama at the same theater, over some trivial matter, finally drawing his revolver. Leonzo promptly knocked him down and took the gun away from him before he could use it. The friends of the belligerent actors interfered, and the men were finally separated. No arrests were made.

Police Board Meeting.

The Board of Metropolitan Police Commissioners met last evening in regular session. The report of the Superintendent for the month of February was received showing that 199 arrests were made, 100 of whom were white persons while 30 were colored, 104 males and 39 females. The report of John Love, as Sergeant, was approved and police powers granted Charles Kuhn and Lee Noble. The Board, after appointing William H. Conklin extra, adjourned.

Rev. David Walk's Resignation.

The resignation of Rev. David Walk, of the Central Christian Church, will take effect April 1, when he will leave for New Orleans to accept the pastorate of the Central Christian Church of that city. Mr. Walk will not remove his household effects to the Crescent City before the middle of summer. It is with great regret, he says, that he leaves Indianapolis, for he and his family have many warm friends here.

The Market House and City Hall.

Councilman Pearson, in conversation with a reporter last night, laid that work on the new Market House and City Hall would begin just as soon as the Council and Board approved of Bolen's plans, and it is quite possible that a joint meeting of these two bodies to take such action will be held next Monday evening in the event that the Mayor returns from New Orleans by that time.

Under the Wheels.

Late last evening, as engine No. 42 of the Belt was crossing Morris street, the engineer saw the mangled body of a man lying alongside of the track. He stopped the engine and discovered the man held in his hand the sweat-leather of a hat, on which was branded Ryan, The Hater, and 23 South 11th street. The supposed dead man said Ryan's hats always save a man's life.

GENTS' FASHIONS.

What to Wear—How to Wear It—Egan & Treat's Semi-Annual Row—Twenty-Seventh Opening.

There is something of a text in the last line above. Considered a moment, it will present a good sermon. "Twenty-seventh semi-annual opening" without a break is an eloquent sentence. It means much, if one will pause to look up and down the street and observe the wreck that old time has made in that time. It means all that is claimed by the new gospel of the "survival of the fittest." It may mean the best fittest or the fittest best. Give 'em fits. At least it is a kind of fit which can not be cured, for having once must continue to have again and again. But, seriously and to the point, which is the opening? In early days the firm were wont to consult the probabilities as to weather, in the hope of striking upon a fair day. But it soon occurred to them that they were not a Sunday school excursion, to be postponed on account of the weather; that the opening was meant to be an exhibition of the season's styles in patterns and shapes, and that if too long a time were waited for a fair day the new suits might also be wanted on that day. The attendance on the opening to-day shows a marked increase over last year, and visitors are finding more to see in the array of patterns which time would fail to describe. From Mr. Tom Egan the following hints were plucked on the run as to the prevailing styles to be worn the ensuing season.

Business Suits.—The variety of plaid suitings is great and the designs novel and attractive. They range from small checks to large and attractive block plaids, and so numerous on the combination of effects and colors that all preferences may easily be satisfied. The style for these goods will be for coat three or four-button cutaway, but the one-button cutaway will also be much worn. Sack coats in the different designs will also be much worn, edges of garments double stitched.

Frock coats.—The double-breasted frock is as popular as ever. The roll will be lower than last season, and closed with four buttons. The lapels are faced with silk. Edges flat braided.

Overcoats.—For spring overcoats, dressed and undressed, Meltons will take the lead. They are quite soft, and made with a cloth finish, and can be found in fashionable colors of light shades.

Inspection of Cavalry Horses.

Will take place at Gates & Prey's stable, on East Market street, Indianapolis, March 17, by Government inspectors at 3 o'clock p. m. Any persons having horses that will suit the cavalry service, and want to dispose of them, can have an opportunity to do so at a fair price for cash.

The National Benefit Association of Indianapolis, a substantial and honorable institution, will afford protection and indemnity against accident or furnish policies of life insurance for less cost than the ordinary life insurance stock company does. It has paid benefits in three years amounting to over $88,000.

Notice—Architects, Builders and Contractors.

Are requested to call and examine the large line of building material, consisting of Hardwood, Doors, Sash, Blinds, Glass, Paints, etc., at 64 East Washington street.

Estimates given at lowest market rates. Ask for their illustrated catalogue of 350 pages, if you have not received it. No charge.
